The statistics above are for TOTAL Anovite Distributors, with the exception of those at the Associate level, because they are not eligible to earn downline commissions.
Average hours worked per week are only estimates based on interviews, surveys and experience.
The earnings of the Distributors in this chart are not guarantees, or projections of income that an Anovite Distributor can or will earn through his or her participation in Anovite's Compensation Plan.
Success requires time, hard work and dedication to skill development. The earnings shown are not profit because they do not take into account possible business expenses
